Guide to Information available through the Model Publication Scheme November 2018

The Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 (FOISA) requires Scottish public authorities to adopt and maintain a publication scheme. Authorities are under a legal obligation to:

- publish the classes of information that they make routinely available
- tell the public how to access the information they publish and whether information is available free of charge or on payment.

Colleges Scotland has adopted the Model Publication Scheme November 2018 produced by the Scottish Information Commissioner. You can view this scheme on our website at https://collegesscotland.ac.uk/Management-and-Governance/freedom-of-information.html.

Availability and Formats

The information we publish through the Model Publication Scheme is, wherever possible, available on the Colleges Scotland website. We offer alternative arrangements for people who do not want to, or cannot, access the information online or by inspection at our premises. For example, we can usually arrange to send information to you in paper copy (although there may be a charge for this).

Exempt Information

We will publish the information we hold that falls within the classes of information below. If a document contains information that is exempt under Scotland's freedom of information laws (for example sensitive personal data or a trade secret), we may withhold the information or provide a redacted version for publication, but we will explain why.

Copyright and Re-use

Where Colleges Scotland holds the copyright in its published information, the information may be copied or reproduced without formal permission, provided that:

- it is copied or reproduced accurately
- it is not used in a misleading context, and
- the source of the material is identified

Where Colleges Scotland does not hold the copyright in information we publish, we will make this clear.

Charges

This section explains when we may make a charge for information and how any charge will be calculated.

There is no charge to view information on our website or at our premises.

We may charge for providing information to you e.g., photocopying and postage, but we will charge you no more than it actually costs us to do so. We will always tell you what the cost is before providing the information to you.

Our photocopying charge per sheet of paper is shown below:

Type of Copy	Per Sheet of Paper
Black and white	£0.0021
Colour	£0.0210

We will recharge any postage costs at the rate we paid to send the information to you.
