Colleges Scotland comment on Rt. Hon Henry McLeish stepping down as chair

Shona Struthers, Chief Executive, Colleges Scotland said:

“Henry McLeish has advised that his decision to step down from his position as chair of the Colleges Scotland board is to allow him to concentrate and focus on his role as chair of the Glasgow Colleges’ Regional Board.

“He will remain as a member of the Colleges Scotland board.

“Liz McIntyre – who is currently vice chair, and also principal of Borders College – will take on the role of interim chair until a new appointment is made.”

“The board of Colleges Scotland wishes to thank Henry for his contribution as chair to the sector agency.”
