Colleges Scotland's Comment on the Public Audit Committee Report

Commenting on the Public Audit Committee's findings on Coatbridge College, Shona Struthers, Chief Executive of Colleges Scotland said:

"What happened at Coatbridge College in 2014 is totally unacceptable and, sadly, undermines the very valuable contribution that colleges make to society every day across the length and breadth of Scotland. We are confident that processes are now more robust and this sort of incident will not be repeated."
