Glasgow Colleges Sign Up to National Bargaining

Shona Struthers, Chief Executive, Colleges Scotland said:

“Glasgow's three colleges have today signed the National Recognition and Procedure Agreement. Colleges Scotland welcomes this development which allows us to move forward on a national basis with collective bargaining.

“This decision by the colleges follows a commitment from the board of Colleges Scotland to amend its governance and decision making arrangements for National Bargaining to give the Glasgow colleges and other colleges a direct involvement in the negotiation of pay and conditions that affect employees. We are pleased that we have reached a solution on this important matter and we look forward to working with colleagues across the college sector in Scotland for the benefit of our students and staff.”
