Colleges Scotland and the Educational Institute of Scotland (EIS) are pleased to announce a draft pay agreement that will be sent out to the EIS FELA Executive for consideration with the negotiators' recommendation to accept.

The draft agreement was made after 12 hours of talks ending at 3am and will lead to the suspension of industrial action across Scotland's colleges.

Shona Struthers, Chief Executive, Colleges Scotland said:

"The Management Side has worked tirelessly to achieve this outcome which will see an end to any further disruption to students and start to address harmonisation of terms and conditions for college lecturers".

Charlie Montgomery, Salaries Convenor EIS-FELA, said:

"We are pleased to have made this breakthrough in the early hours that will set a sound foundation going forward".
