

18 July 2014

Colleges Scotland comment on economic impact survey

Shona Struthers, acting chief executive of Colleges Scotland said: “North East Scotland College’s report gives inarguable proof to what the sector has long known – investing in colleges gives a significant return at regional and national levels.

“Colleges Scotland will be campaigning for greater financial resources during this year’s budget negotiations, so that we can continue to strengthen our contribution to Scotland’s economy.”

ENDS